BATTLE OF BRITAIN DAWN PATROL

Saturday September 16th Aero Club Members will muster early to make ready their aircraft to fly in the Battle of Britain Dawn Commemorative Patrol.

The Dawn Patrol commemorates the turning point in the Battle of Britain during WWII and the Aero Club of Southern Tasmania salutes the airmen who were on call daily to fly the Dawn Patrol.

Book an aircraft or the second seat now with the office 6248 5370 to take part in the Dawn Patrol. Report to Cambridge by 06.30. Liftoff at 07.00. Big Cooked Breakfast to follow ALL WELCOME to drop in for Breakfast or view and photograph the Morning Sortie.

Saturday September 16th

PLENTY ON THE GO FOR 2ND HALF

There is plenty on the schedule for the next six months and I hope that you will be able to be involved in several of the upcoming events. The popular Mini time trials Bruny Island flyin that was cancelled due to bad weather is scheduled for this Sunday August 6th. 09.00 ready your aircraft 10.00 briefing 11.00 first plane flagged off. The dinner for two from Le Provencal, 2 café vouchers for Jean-Pascal Patisserie and the 30 min C172 or Jabiru trial flight prizes are still up for grabs.

If you have not paid your annual subscription please make a real effort in the next day or two to sort it. I'm pleased to say a lot of members have paid, which saves a heap of administration time. However we will be sending out accounts to those stragglers. We do take credit card payment over the phone, it's quick it's easy just call the office 6248 5370.

Saturday morning September 16th at 06.30 we will fly the Battle of Britain Dawn Patrol. If you are interested in participating put your name down at the office.

Afterwards there is Peter Fenton's monster Big Cooked Breakfast, I can hear the lashings of bacon sizzling now. All you can eat cooked breakfast for just $3 bring the gold coins. You Aircraft Spotters and Photographers there are some beautiful images and silhouettes to be captured in the early light and please stay on for Breakfast.

I must thank Rob Gard and George Newell for the donation and installation of the wash trough in the main Club hangar. It is something we have always needed, thanks guys. It is really good to see the camaraderie Roy Swan put two hours in fixing a the
