Stan swapped 120kts for 400 kts stepping into the cockpit of the TOP GUN British Aerospace "Jet Provost" MK5. Stan said, with his face beaming after an aircraft carrier touchdown at Cambridge Airport on runway 27, "Awesome pulling into a loop the power of the jet is massive, very smooth and quiet."

"As you perform the complete loop, because of the power you pull a steady 4G's around the whole loop. Fantastic, absolute barrel of fun, you've got to do it!" said Stan

THE EXTREME ADRENALINE RUSH

Stan Tilley, Jet Provost owner Dave Warren, and Dan Duggan Managing Director of Top Gun Tasmania made it possible for the aircraft to join the Aero Club commemorative Dawn Patrol and feature in static display on the Cambridge apron during the Big Breakfast.

Dan said "It was fantastic, it was a great privilege to help commemorate the Battle of Britain and salute that generation of fighter pilots and have a bit of fun with the Aero Club as well.
