

CARS LINED ALONG KENNEDY DRIVE

The Top Gun Nanchang and the Victa MTC were out early in formation over the City to drum up some patrons. The public were arriving even before the gates opened at 10.00 and by late morning the cars were lined up and down both sides of Kennedy Drive, people commenting they were parked up past the old Tasair hangar.

TAC operations manager Joe Miller dropped in to say hello.

kept going. Just over a thousand sausages were devoured. Soft drinks from the Bar kept Peter Hemelrijk busy with more stocks brought in to keep up to the demand.

B: Flying in from Launceston was L: pilot Brian Green and Marcel Jansen in his J160c. Also a plane load in the Cirrus and

A: Henry Ellis from Tasair was over helping out the Top Gun team with their merchandising. Henry is now a Commercial Pilot with his Instructor rating, Instrument rating and flies the C152 172 206 and Shrike Aero Commander. Team leader John Davis and the guys on the Sausage sizzle didn't stop. Philip Petersen kept taking the gold coins and the sausages in bread Chief Ground Marshall, here drawing one of the raffle prizes donated by Par Avion and Freycinet Air. R: Ron Andersen just talked all day keeping the public informed over the loudspeakers with the Glenorchy City Concert Brass providing the music and the Club members and Pilots providing the rest including privately owned aircraft for display.

OPEN DAY MAGIC

Poppet the Clown was doing her magic with Balloons for the kids. Helicopters and planes were the favorites. A colouring competition also kept the kids busy with a queue that never stopped all day. Planes arrived from all over. The cloud seeding Cessna Conquest, Kyle Gardner's SeaRey, Simon McCormack's replica 1929 Pietenpol, the Austers of Rod McNeill and Rob Gard, The Flying Foxes of Tony Gray, Ricky Clark and Carl Nilsson plus more.

A: Popular Poppet the Clown.

L: Glenorchy City Concert Brass

